Ormsby, Eric
Author, Poet, Scholar
1960-2003
58 boxes and items (8.5 metres)

This collection contains papers and other material pertaining to the work of Eric Ormsby, a Montreal-based writer and Islamic studies scholar. Born 16 October 1941 in Atlanta, GA, Ormsby, a McGill University professor, is the author of several collections of poetry and works of non-fiction. His poems have been published in numerous well-known publications, including The New Republic, The New Yorker, The New Criterion and The Norton Introduction to Literature.

Includes word-processed and holograph versions of numerous poems, including sections of forthcoming collection Time's Covenant, short stories, plays, reviews, and essays. Collection also includes notebooks and MSS dating back to the 1950s, speaking tour information, photographs, personal and professional correspondence, and material related to academic activities in Canada and abroad. Ormsby currently lives in London, England.

Shorthand notations are used throughout the finding aid and are to be translated thus: H – holograph text, WP – word-processed text, HR – holograph revision, w – with, TLS – typed letter signed, TL – typed letter, TNS – typed note signed, TN – typed note, ALS – autograph letter signed, ANS – autograph note signed, AN – autograph note.
